Gwinnett Tax Commissioner Installs Ninth Kiosk in Lilburn

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

LAWRENCEVILLE, Ga., Feb. 15, 2023—Gwinnett County Tax Commissioner Denise R. Mitchell announces the installation of the ninth tag-renewal kiosk in Gwinnett County. The new self-service kiosk was recently installed in the Kroger at 3050 Five Forks Trickum Road in Lilburn, Georgia. The Kroger is in Five Forks Crossing.

The new kiosk is accessible during the store’s operating hours, 6 a.m. to 11 p.m., Sunday through Saturday, but are subject to change.

Tax Commissioner Denise R. Mitchell said the new kiosk is an additional option for residents of Lilburn and Gwinnett County to renew their vehicle tags timely and close to home. Her goal is to ensure services are accessible and convenient for all customers.

Kiosks reduce the wait in line, allow customers to renew their vehicle registration and walk away with their current tag decal.

To renew at a kiosk, drivers must have an up-to-date Georgia driver’s license and a correct address on their renewal notice. They must have liability insurance and proof of an emissions inspection must be on file with the state.

The machines accept debit and credit cards. Customers will be charged a small convenience fee for using the kiosk. The Gwinnett County Tax Commissioner has 24-hour kiosks in its Lawrenceville and North Gwinnett locations. There are seven additional kiosks throughout the county.
